Beacon Funding Continues Team Growth by Adding Experienced Leasing Consultants

Dover, N.H., May 15, 2017— Beacon Funding is proud to welcome four Senior Leasing Consultants to their growing team. The leading equipment financing company has entered an unprecedented period of growth that requires the addition of talented leasing professionals to help the company best serve their clients.

“Our organization is very fortunate to be bringing on such a talented group of equipment financing professionals,” said Beacon Funding President, Toby McDonough. “I am confident that Dominic, Ed, Rob & Bruce will continue Beacon Funding’s tradition of providing our business clients and equipment sales partners with a great equipment financing experience.”

The new Senior Leasing Consultants are as follows:

- Dominic Knight- Knight’s extensive mortgage company experience and quick rise at Direct Capital provides Beacon yet another seasoned consultant empowered to help small businesses get the capital they need to stay competitive in today’s market.
- Ed O’Donnell- With over eight years at Direct Capital, O’Donnell has perfected the art of fostering vendor relationships and helping clients acquire the equipment their businesses need. O’Donnell looks forward to helping Beacon grow as the go-to company for equipment financing.
- Rob Rohner- Rohner’s time at Direct Capital was marked by stellar performance as a top sales representative, and he plans to bring that success to Beacon Funding. His dedication to helping small business owners and success in sales will be much appreciated by the current team.
- Bruce Donaldson- After four years as a top performer at Direct Capital, Donaldson gained numerous selling, leasing, and customer service skills that will be highly valued at Beacon Funding. He looks forward to bringing his expertise to the growing company.

The addition of the experienced consultants will further allow Beacon Funding to aid small-to-mid sized businesses in acquiring equipment, a mission the company remains dedicated to.

“The addition of these four gentlemen further represents Beacon’s long held commitment to helping small business owners across America,” said VP of Sales Ken Karpel. “We are all very excited to have them aboard the Beacon Funding team.

The hiring of the new senior leasing consultants follows the expansion of Beacon’s leadership team, who remain dedicated to supporting the team, and the company as a whole, as they work to grow further.
